

LOUISIANA'S CAJUN BAYOU CULTURAL IMMERSION EXPERIENCE

GOLDEN MEADOW LIBRARY HISTORICAL CENTER — GOLDEN MEADOW

Enjoy a guided tour of the Golden Meadow Historical Center. Through a collection of artifacts, exhibits, and memorabilia, the museum offers an excellent overview of life in Golden Meadow, with a focus on the region's shrimping and oyster industries.

CHINE'S CAJUN NET SHOP — GOLDEN MEADOW

Make your own shrimp (trawl nets) and oyster nets down the Bayou in Golden Meadow at Chine's Cajun Net Shop. Learn the differences between shrimp boats and oyster boats, and listen to the history of both industries on Bayou Lafourche.

COLLINS OYSTER COMPANY — GOLDEN MEADOW

Shuck oysters at Collins Oyster Company, and learn how oysters and oyster pearls are formed. Discover how oysters are harvested and processed, and browse through the oyster pile on Bayou Lafourche, and pick out your own oyster shell.

CHER-AMIE'S RESTAURANT — CUT OFF

For lunch, enjoy a delicious meal in Cut Off at Cher-Amie's Seafood Restaurant. Have a bowl of Chicken Gumbo followed by Bacon Wrapped Fried Shrimp or Stuffed Softshell Crabs. While dining, relax in the southern hospitality atmosphere.

THE CRAB STATION — LAROSE

Stop by The Crab Station in Larose and see first-hand how live Louisiana Blue Crabs are processed for shipment throughout the United States and internationally. Listen to local fishermen explain the crab fishing occupation.

CENTER FOR TRADITIONAL LOUISIANA BOAT BUILDING — LOCKPORT

Learn the lost art of time-honored boat building through a hands-on learning experience at the Center for Traditional Louisiana Boat Building. Learn how to make a wooden cypress cooking paddle, and enjoy numerous boat displays including a New Orleans Slugger, a Creole Rolling Skiff, and a Lafitte Skiff. Each depict the past livelihood of building boats. Also join in an interactive look at the area's bateaus, pirogues, skiffs, and watercraft.

AIRBOAT TOUR BY ARTHUR MATHERNE — DES ALLEMANDS

Discover the natural beauty of Bayou Des Allemands on an exciting excursion with Airboat Tours by Arthur Matherne. As the airboat glides through the swamplands and the wetlands, the picturesque sights of the marshes will fascinate you as Captain Arthur Matherne describes different types of shrubs, trees, and alligators.
