Nestled in the heart of America on historic Route 66 is Edmond, Oklahoma. Edmond is known for excellence - great food and wonderful choices for lodging, an incomparable collection of public art, world class golf, shopping galore and so much more. Come get your kicks in Edmond!

Lodging

Edmond has many choices for accommodations, from nationally known hotels to cozy, romantic bed and breakfasts. Several of our hotels have meeting and banquet facilities as well, and there are numerous off-property meeting facilities in town.

Dining

Edmond has more restaurants per capita than any other city in Oklahoma - more than 200 total! Everything from down-home American to elegant gourmet, and all served with the friendly smiles Oklahomans' are famous for.

Attractions

Edmond has plenty to keep you smiling - beautiful Arcadia Lake, ice skating, historical museums, rodeo, art galleries, live theatre and music (especially jazz!) and even our own water park. Located just north of Oklahoma City, Edmond is just minutes away from all the great attractions and museums in Central Oklahoma.

Sports

In and around Edmond are some of the finest golf courses in the region. In fact, turn on a PGA tournament and you may be watching Edmond in action! Edmond facilities also play host to a number of national and regional tournaments for soccer, basketball, softball and other sports.

Major Events

Each year, people come to Edmond from all over the country for their favorite events. Here are just a few of the 'biggies.' Check our website for dates. Eagle Watch at Arcadia Lake (Jan), Wrangler Timed Event Championship of the World (Mar), Downtown Arts Festival and Jazz & Blues Festival (May), Endeavor Games (June), LibertyFest (June & July), Route 66 Classic Car Show (Sept), and WinterGlow (Dec).

Public Art

Walk or drive anywhere in Edmond, and you will experience a collection of art rarely found in the largest of museums. Edmond has more than 100 sculptures of bronze, stone and steel from the top artists in the country. It's what makes Edmond... the Art of Oklahoma!
