

Scenic Byways & Backways

North Dakota is full of breathtaking views, uninhabited land, extraordinary wildlife, country charm, rich culture and history, and an abundance of outdoor recreational opportunities. North Dakota Scenic Byways & Backways provide year-round beauty, activities, and amenities.

Killdeer Mountain Four Bears Scenic Byway:

Rich culture, history and activities provide visitors an enthralling adventure in west central North Dakota.

Sheyenne River Valley National Scenic Byway:

North Dakota's first nationally recognized Scenic Byway.

Old Red Old Ten Scenic Byway: With spectacular views of historic buildings and museums, visitors will be captivated as they make their way through western ND.

Rendezvous Region Scenic Backway: Enjoy year-round recreational opportunities including snowmobiling, skiing, snowboarding, hiking, and canoeing.

Theodore Roosevelt National Park North Unit Scenic Byway:

With colorful Badlands and historic symbolism, the Theodore Roosevelt National Park is a must-see destination.

Chan SanSan (James River) Scenic Backway: Enjoy old-world charm including a toy farmer museum, and earthen mounds in a valley carved out over 12,000 years ago by glacial melt water.

Des Lacs National Wildlife Refuge Scenic Backway:

A spectacular view of Des Lacs Lake and marsh, as well as the opportunity to witness some remarkable wildlife.

Turtle Mountain Scenic Byway: Year-round recreational opportunities including camping, canoeing, fishing, hunting, hiking, horseback riding, snowmobiling, and skiing.

Sakakawea Scenic Byway: Take a trip back in time where you will discover the rich culture and history of pioneers who lived along the Missouri River and the Knife River.

Standing Rock National Native American Scenic Byway:

Scenic area with vast wildlife and stunning views of the Missouri River.