

Explore over 100 waterfalls,
dozens of parks, miles of trails,
and spectacular scenic views along the Cherokee Foothills Scenic Byway.

A leisurely drive along this 112-mile byway in South Carolina's Upcountry will let you discover beautiful views of the Blue Ridge Mountains, enjoy the charm of several small towns, pick up fresh apples, strawberries or peaches at a roadside stand, and learn the history of the native Cherokee Indians and the American Revolution. In late October and early November, plan to spend some extra time on the route to soak in the magnificent display of fall foliage.
