Whether your interests are in family-friendly events and festivals, Civil War history, African American history and heritage, hunting and fishing, or just taking in the historical sites and sounds of our communities and country roads, your trip on the #YazooBackroads is waiting.

"...to my contemporaries when I left the place later for college, I was called 'Yazoo.' Such was the spell the very name exerted on you long after you had left it."

-Willie Morris, North Toward Home (1967)

Yazoo County, Mississippi - winner of a Readers' Choice Award from Convention South Magazine in 2015, the 2015 Delta Region Research-in-Acition Award from Mississippi Development Authority, Delta's Best Tourism Award 2014 from the Mississippi Delta Strategic Compact, and 3-time winner (2012, 2013, 2014) of CVB of the Year from the Mississippi Tourism Association - is home to the world famous Bentonia blues, the oldest juke joint in Mississippi, world championship-winning barbecue, famous literary and political figures, unique art and shopping, and a living history like nowhere else in Mississippi.
